

Sri P. M. NADGOUDA (Minister for Development).—

(a) Yes.

(b) No sanction of either the experts or the concerned authorities was obtained. It is a fact that the wool was sold at half price without calling for tenders.

(c) This matter was noticed in the audit report for 1968-69.

(d) There is a loss of Rs. 47,720 as per the audit report. Suitable action as per the provisions of Mysore Co-operative Societies Act will be taken.
